EXPERIENCE THE POWER OF THE HEROES CONCERT

WATCH: CENTRAL PARK OCTOBER 7TH COMMEMORATION: ONE YEAR LATER

Overview

Project Heroes continues its mission to redefine the Jewish narrative from victimhood to heroism. The Heroes Commemoration Concert is an illuminating and unifying experience dedicated to honoring the heroic acts of October 7th. This event pays tribute to those who lost their lives while saving others, each embodying a unique facet of Jewish heroism. As we approach the second anniversary of that fateful day, their legacies continue to inspire, serving as a testament to courage that will live on forever.

Following the extended Heroes Tour - with powerful stops at major venues and events including UJA Federation's "October 7: One Year Later" in New York's Central Park, the Nova Exhibition, and the Opera House in Tel Aviv - we are deeply honored and humbled to return to the meaningful stages across North America.

As a non-profit, Project Heroes is committed to honoring the Heroes and sharing their legacies. We invite you to join us in reflecting their courage and spreading their stories far and wide.

Project Heroes on Campus

In these challenging times, both in Israel and throughout the global diaspora, the narrative of heroism has become a profound source of strength, unity, and hope. In response, we've expanded the project's reach through educational programs on campuses, actively inspiring the next generation with powerful stories of resilience and heroism that resonate deeply and leave a lasting mark on their hearts and minds.

These stories don't just reflect the past - they shape a future grounded in courage, memory, and meaning.

About Gilad Segev

Leading the Project Heroes is Gilad Segev, an Israeli singer-songwriter and musician known internationally as Passerby.

Segev's profound involvement in the project stems from his initial release, "Achshav Tov," which is dedicated to his brother who lost his life while serving in the IDF. The track garnered widespread recognition, becoming the most played song on Israeli radio stations that year.

Subsequently, Segev established a successful career with ten number 1 hits in Israel and millions of followers internationally for his Passerby project.

Notably, Gilad is the son of a Brigadier General who served as the governor of the Gaza Strip and held the position of the last military attaché in Iran. Additionally, he is the child of a mother who is a Holocaust survivor.

Gilad's personal narrative intertwines with recent events in various ways.

Testimonials

“ President of the State of Israel
Isaac Herzog

As Project Heroes brings to light – even in the darkest hours, we stood witness to the fortitude, courage, resilience and compassion that make our people. To the eternal Jewish and Israeli spirit that refuses to be broken.

“ 92nd Street Y, New York
Susan Engel, Executive Director

On behalf of the 92nd Street Y, I want to thank you for bringing “Heroes” to our stage.

The performance was not only informative and enlightening, but transformative -- every person in the audience felt their hearts expanded and lives enriched by having seen it tonight.

The entire production was first rate – the musicians, the visual elements, and of course, Gilad's beautiful voice, echoing in more ways than one, the many voices of Jewish heroism through the ages.

“ JCC Palo Alto
Ronit Jacobs

What sets Project Heroes apart is its extraordinary fusion of music and storytelling, creating an emotionally resonant experience that touches the heart of every audience member.

Gilad's masterful integration of original music with personal narratives transformed these stories into something truly transcendent.
